

Greetings, my name is Suzanne Aquistapace. I was born and raised in Rutland, Vermont and attended Christ the King School. I graduated from Mount Saint Joseph Academy in 1978 and from Trinity College in Burlington, Vermont in 1982 with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Early Childhood and Elementary Education. I began teaching at Christ the King School in 1995, and this year, I begin my thirty-first year as a first grade teacher.

My teaching philosophy centers on nurturing the whole child's mind, heart and spirit. I believe that each child is uniquely created by God with special gifts and talents, and my classroom is a place where curiosity is encouraged, kindness is practiced, and learning is celebrated.

I strive to create a warm, structured, and faith-filled environment where children feel safe to take risks, ask questions, and grow not only in knowledge but also in character. My role as both a teacher and partner with families in guiding children toward a lifelong love of learning.

Family is very important to me. I enjoy traveling with my husband, Frank. We love visiting our sons, Jordan and Zak. I also enjoy reading books, quilting and being outdoors at the beach or playing golf.
